New Zealand Federation of Voluntary Welfare Organisations

NZFWO is a national network of community organisations in Aotearoa working with the CEDNZ Trust to develop the CED network and CED concepts.

Your Outline

What is your Grass Roots project?

.....
.....

Tell us about your organisation? (e.g. your Vision, Mission & Values).....

.....
.....
.....

How much watering (money) does your Grass Roots Project require?

(Loans are available from $5,000— $500,000)

.....

Tell us why your organisation is ready to borrow this money

.....
.....
.....

In addition to watering (money), what ideas do you have to stimulate growth?

(For instance do you have a sales and marketing plan?)

.....
.....
.....

How will your loan be repaid?

.....

Do you have anything to offer as security? Yes No

If you answered 'Yes' to the last question, what security do you have?

.....

Support you require

Who are the key people who will make your Grass Roots Project work?

.....

What support do you think you need from the panel to shape your idea into a loan application for real world consideration?

.....
.....

Resources & Money

To qualify for entry you MUST include a copy of your organisation's most recent audited financial accounts. A copy of the last three years is preferable, but we need a minimum of one financial year's audited financial accounts for your Grass Roots idea to be considered.

Next Steps

We will notify successful applicants by phone no later than Tuesday 12 April 2011.

If you are successful you will be invited to make a "pitch".

Pitches will be made to a panel of five judges and will be in front of an audience. Your pitch is to be directed at the judges, but it needs to inform an audience which knows nothing about your organisation or your idea. We envisage your pitch will simply be a repackaging of your initial entry.

You may use PowerPoint or video to assist your pitch.
